SOCIETY

glad to know that they will probably return to Pensacola next winter and make their home here.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY WILL MEET TUESDAY.

The Missionary Society of the First Methodist church will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Sunday school room. The president earnestly requests that all members of the society will be present.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. R. F. Aylward has returned to her home in Brookhaven, Miss., after a pleasant visit to her mother, Mrs. James Massey, of West Chase street.

Mrs. E. R. Tatman, of Bluff Springs, and her sister, Mrs. Anna Beach, of Grand Rapids, Mich., are spending a few days in the city. While here they are the guests of Mrs. E. R. Ward.

Mrs. Carroll White, who has been in Pensacola for several days, called here by the illness and death of her brother, Mr. Jack Dean, has returned to her home in Bagdad.

Mr. H. T. Biggs, who has been spending several months with Mrs. W. (Continued on Page Nineteen)

DANGERS OF FAT

How Fat Affects the Heart.

Fatty Degeneration of the heart may well be a bug-bear to all fat people. An excess of fat around the heart not only impedes its movements, but gradually changes the substance of the organ. The pulse becomes weaker; excitement or extra exertion causes throbbing in the throat and temples; the breath is short and gasping. When these symptoms come to the man or woman who is too fat, steps should be taken to remove the excess fat, not only from the suffocated heart, but from other parts of the body where it makes its unwelcome appearance. Many so-called fat reducers are dangerous to the fatty heart, placing upon it an added burden by stimulating its action. There is but one sure, harmless fat reducer known, the now famous Marmola Prescription of a Detroit physician, and its more convenient form, Marmola Prescription Tablets. By means of these harmless little tablets, thousands of overfat people have surely and safely reduced their weight at the rate of 10 to 15 lbs. a day without exercise or dieting. Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists, or the Marmola Company, 541 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich., at 75c. for a large case.

ON WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE

(WRITTEN BY REQUEST)

By BONNIE BURNHAM.

Of course, I realize that my saying so may probably come as a staggering blow to the lined up forces in the cause of "Woman's Suffrage," but I want to put myself right at the start—no "Woman's Suffrage" for mine.

I don't believe that it is a practical idea. I don't believe that the majority of women would be able to eliminate personalities from politics—the same characteristic which makes her a bad "risk" in the business world sometimes.

I don't believe that she would vote for the husband of the woman who had snubbed her socially, even if he stood for the very best of all the moral standards—I don't believe I could.

I don't believe that the woman-mind was ever constructed, as a class, to take care of the home and the nation's affairs at the same time, thus doing plainly a double duty—and I don't believe that women know how lucky they are to remain in their natural sphere and congenial atmosphere at home.

Some one will challenge me a dozen times, I know. "But you are no property holder, and you do not care." But I am—and I'm contented, too, to let the thing rock on,—because the system seems to have worked pretty well so far,—and to leave the added responsibility and pleasures of voting and politics entirely to the man.

When I got to thinking what I accidentally know about politics (and I have not cursorily sought to know these things), I am moved to throw up my hat, or somebody else's, and give three cheers that I'm a woman and therefore "out of it."

One of the greatest advantages of being a woman is the fact that politics is not in her line.

And the woman who thinks for a minute that she, or a crowd of "her," is going to do much better than the men in handling the situation, is thinking against the stiffest kind of a proposition, besides wasting a lot of energy that she should be using in making a success of an often disreputable home.

I've merely been asked to talk on the subject.

I'm merely stating what I think.

Just Judging.

Judging from what I know of men, and of women, and of myself, I believe that the man for instance, who had a mob variety of wife attached to him, would find it pretty hard indeed to catch the votes of the women who were somewhat not included in her little "affairs" of a social nature—probably not recognized by her, if she held the kind of position that her husband naturally stood for in the community.

It is the hardest thing in the world now for women to be broad and splendid enough to overlook the shallow minds of shallow sheltered women, and the insults which sometimes come. If you don't believe it, search through the business world—and you'll see!

It would be much the same, and more, if the political problem became involved with the other.

Judging again from what I know about women, this madly dashing around into politics and other masculine pursuits, is rather alien to the average woman-heart, which, under ideal circumstances, is a home-keeping heart, full of a great life work of making her homely kingdom a paradise for the hungry man who comes at the end of the day, and for the little children at her feet.

If the average woman takes care of her home, her children, her husband and herself in the manner which becomes her duty once the marriage vow is spoken, I do not see for the very life of me, how she is going to manage for very much else.

Women of certain classes might like the idea of appearing conspicuously at the polls, but not your ideal, home-loving woman—not once in a hundred years!

Don't you like my logic?

Can't help it—these are from my very own private stock of musing, and I've been asked to express an opinion.

And these are mine.

No Use.

There is no use, nor no more good to be brought about by sending the women to the polls, than would be the case if you tied kitchen aprons around the men and set them to washing dishes in the kitchen.

Everybody knows what an unhappy, bungling out-of-his-place creature the average man appears when he fools with the kitchen things, and the women would look quite as alien at the polls.

What the A. D. S. Preparations Really Are

Guaranteed Formulas of the Best Druggists in the U. S., Compounded by Experts and Made to Do What They Say They'll Do.

Pensacola people will soon begin to appreciate the fact that the Balkcom Drug Store has recently had the extremely good fortune to become admitted to the American Druggists' Syndicate, which is far and away the best possible proposition for the public relative to almost anything sold in a drug store.

The syndicate is formed of about 15,000 of the leading druggists in the United States, a committee of which is carefully selected to see to the actual compounding of the preparations, which are selected from those recognized as the best by experienced and competent druggists all over the country.

All patent medicine mixtures that are known to "do the work" all toilet preparations; everything known to the best and most reliable druggists in short, are included in the A. D. S. services.

So satisfactory and reliable are the A. D. S. preparations that they are sold under absolute guarantee, which will prove their worth from the first to even the most skeptical.

So get acquainted right away with the A. D. S. remedies, toilet goods, etc. The idea is:

"Hello, John, I hear you had your watch stolen the other day?" "Yes, but the thief is already caught. The fool took it to the pawnshop and there they immediately recognized it as mine and detained him."

"Don't these perverses make you sick?" asked Chapley of his vis-a-vis at the Spindler. "I don't know," she replied innocently, "I never ate any."—Judge.

Nature has made ample provision in the sunshine and moisture of the air for the outward life and protection of the skin, but the more important work of nourishing the cuticle has been left to an inward source—the blood. It is from the circulation that the pores and glands receive their support, and the fibrous tissues are all preserved in a healthful state because of constant nourishment supplied by the blood.

So long as the blood is pure and rich the skin will be free from eruptions or disease, but when the circulation becomes infected with acids and humors its nourishing and healthful properties are greatly diminished, and this acid, humor-laden condition causes irritation and inflammation of the delicate tissues and fibres. Then the effect is shown in Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some other distressing, disfiguring skin disease.

Humors and impurities get into the blood through a deranged or inactive condition of the system. Those members whose duty it is to collect and expel the refuse matter of the system fail to properly do their work, and this surplus or waste matter is left in the system to sour and be absorbed into the blood.

The cause of all skin diseases can be traced to some humor or acid in the blood. Smooth, healthy skins are only possible where the circulation is pure; and therefore the cure of any skin affection can only come from a thorough cleansing of this vital fluid. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., are available only for their ability to keep the skin clean, allay superficial irritation, or soften the hardened cuticle. Such treatment cannot cure because it does not reach the blood where the cause is located, and to depend upon such measures alone usually results in the aggravation and spreading of any skin trouble.

S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing all humors or other impurities from the blood. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its rich, nutritious corpuscles, and adds to its purity and nourishing qualities in every way. Then the skin instead of being irritated and inflamed by acids and fiery humors, is nourished, soothed and made perfect by a plentiful supply of rich, pure blood. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers and therefore lies its ability to cure skin troubles, rashes and all eruptions of the cuticle. These troubles cannot remain when the cause has been removed, and S. S. S. will certainly remove the cause by purifying the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and medical advice free.

I suffered with a bad case of Eczema for over 12 years, and I tried everything I heard of. Nothing helped me until I began to use S. S. S. I commenced this medicine and the Eczema soon began to gradually disappear. I continued taking S. S. S., and it completely cured the disease and every blemish and eruption left. The sores and itching so characteristic of this trouble have entirely left, and I am sound and well.
